A Letter From the President:

A New Beginning 2003-2005 Thorobred Yearbook

Greetings from the President:

Congratulations to the yearbook staff and all those involved with the production of the 2004-2005 Kentucky State University yearbook. They have done an outstanding job helping us to reflect on the academic year.

While it does not always seem to be the case as students, the time you spend in college passes very quickly. You will come to cherish the photos in this yearbook of your friends, faculty and staff, and the memories these photos captured. Even as staff and faculty we will find ourselves reflecting on the pages of the yearbook and remembering our time in college or the time we spent with you as students.

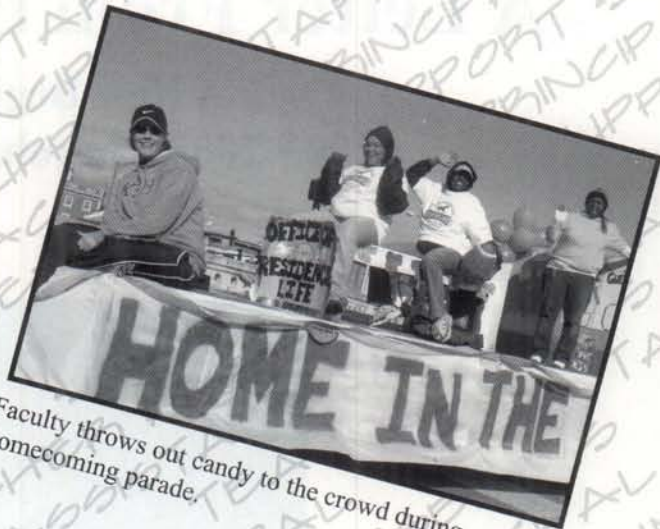

Kentucky State University is an institution rich in history. It is our goal to produce students who will leave our walls well prepared for a life of service in the different communities in which they choose to live. As Thorobreds, we are proud of our heritage and revel in the time we spend at KSU.

Again, the yearbook staff is to be commended for providing us with a wonderful memory of the 2004-2005 academic year.

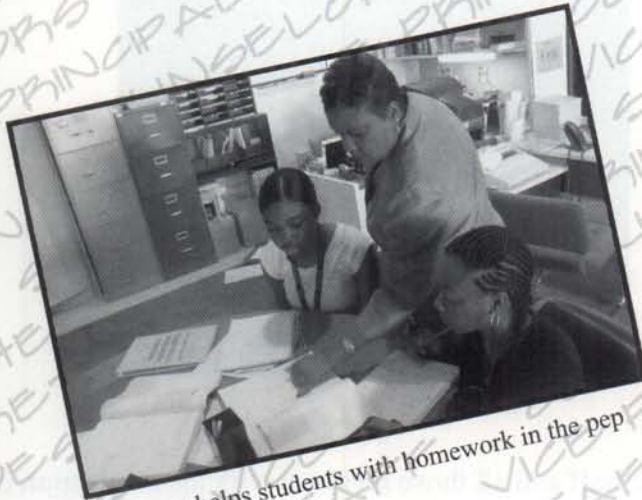

Onward & upward!

CONGRADULATIONS to the Persevering Class of 2005!! I, LaDonna Brazil am exceedingly proud to not only be your class President, but also to be a member of the graduating class of 2005, I applaud you on taking the initiative of going Onward with your undergraduate studies and now I dare you to go Upward in your life outside of these "four walls". You have completed one leg of the race, now I want to persuade you to use the tool you have received thus far to complete your destiny and purpose. Now that you have accomplished the baton of your undergraduate degree, I challenge you to defy the odds to achieve and surpass all expectations.

Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. was founded at Howard University in Washington, D.C., January 9, 1914, by three young African-American male students. The founders, Honorable A. Langston Taylor, Honorable Leonard F. Morse, and Honorable Charles I. Brown, wanted to organize a Greek letter fraternity that would truly exemplify the ideals of brotherhood, scholarship, and service.

Brief History of Alpha Kappa Alpha

In 1908, Alpha Kappa Alpha became America's first Greek-letter organization established by Black college women. Her roots date back to Howard University, Washington, D.C., where the idea for formation was conceived by Ethel Hedgeman Lyle of St. Louis, Missouri. She viewed the Sorority as an instrument for enriching the social and intellectual aspects of college life by providing mental stimulation through interaction with friends and associates. Through the years, however, Alpha Kappa Alpha's function has become more complex. After her incorporation as a perpetual body in 1913, Alpha Kappa Alpha gradually branched out and became the channel through which selected college-trained women improved the socioeconomic conditions in their city, state, nation, and the world.

In a world in which materialism is pervasive, and technology and competition have decreased the need for collaboration and cooperation, it is critical to have an association that cuts across racial, international, physical, and social barriers to help individuals and communities develop and maintain constructive relationships with others. Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority is that vital organization. Alpha Kappa Alpha is a sisterhood composed of women who have consciously chosen this affiliation as a means of self-fulfillment through volunteer service. Alpha Kappa Alpha cultivates and encourages high scholastic and ethical standards; promotes unity and friendship among college women; alleviates problems concerning girls and women; maintains a progressive interest in college life; and serves all mankind through a nucleus of more than 150,000 women in the United States, the Caribbean, Europe, and Africa.

Since its founding on December 4, 1906, Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. has supplied voice and vision to the struggle of African-Americans and people of color around the world. Alpha Phi Alpha, the first intercollegiate Greek-letter fraternity established for African-Americans, was founded at Cornell University in Ithaca, New York by seven college men who recognized the need for a strong bond of Brotherhood among African descendants in this country.

The Alphas

Kappa Alpha Psi

Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc was founded on January 5, 1911 at Indiana University in Bloomington, Indiana. Kappa Alpha Psi was founded by ten founders on the basis of achieving in every field of human endeavor. The Alpha Upsilon Chapter was established on March 1, 1935 here at Kentucky State University. Kappa Alpha Psi has chapters all over the nation and the world.

Kappa Alpha Psi is an establishment of distinguished gentlemen who are trained for leadership as undergraduates. They emphasize that "Many are Called, but Few are Chosen".

Iota Phi Theta

On September 19, 1963, at Morgan State College (now Morgan State University), 12 students founded what is now the nation's fifth largest, predominately African-American social service fraternity: The Iota Phi Theta Fraternity, Incorporated.

The founders of Iota Phi Theta were: Albert Hicks, Lonnie Spruill, Jr., Charles Briscoe, Frank Coakley, John Slade, Barron Willis, Webster Lewis, Charles Brown, Louis Hudnell, Charles Gregory, Elias Dorsey, Jr.,

and Michael Williams. This group of men was unique for several reasons. First of all, many were long-time friends. Many of the friendship begin when they were in grade school, and even pre-school.

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Inc., was founded January 13, 1913, on the campus of Howard University, by twenty two illustrious women. At the inception of Delta Sigma Theta, the founders envisioned an organization of college women pledged to serious endeavor and community service.

The Alpha Pi chapter of Delta Sigma Theta was established at Kentucky State University on April 30, 1934, by twenty distinctive, hard working women.

Omega Psi Phi

On Friday evening, November 17, 1911, three Howard University undergraduate students, with the assistance of their faculty adviser, gave birth to the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity. From the initials of the Greek phrase meaning "friendship is essential to the soul," the name Omega Psi Phi was derived. The phrase was selected as the motto. Manhood, scholarship, perseverance and uplift were adopted as cardinal principles.

Tau Beta Sigma

The idea for Tau Beta Sigma National Honorary Band Sorority, Incorporated was cultivated at Texas Tech University in 1939 by Wava Banes (Henry), Emily Surell, and Rosell Williams. After overcoming other trials, the organization was officially founded on the campus of Oklahoma State University on March 26, 1946.

The Zeta Rho Chapter of Tau Beta Sigma was founded at Kentucky State University on March 7, 1981, and re-chartered on September 9, 1990. Current service activities include: providing water and refreshments at band camp, passing out and collecting band uniforms, Ladies Night Out, assisting the band director, ushering for concerts, and cleaning up the band hall.

KAPPA KAPPA PSI

In the years that followed World War I, a movement developed among college and university bands, searching for some motivating force that would create a greater interest in band music. Seizing upon this idea, ten members of the Oklahoma A & M College (later to be known as the Oklahoma State University) Band, led by William A. Scroggs and their director, Bohumil Makovsky, drew up a plan for a national honorary society for college bandmen.

Miss KSU's Address

Behold the Green and the Gold! As your elected Miss Kentucky State University 2004-2005, I, Danielle Nichols, would like to thank the entire student body for your love and support. It pleases me to be the queen of the greatest Historical Black University in the world!! I have taken on this position as your royal leader with grace, compassion, dedication, fidelity, and dignity. I am honored to have been in a position to serve you, Kentucky State University, and I love you unconditionally. There is no family like the Kentucky State family! "And there shall be no other to surpass Her fame."

Mr. KSU Address

Greetings fellow Thorobreds and Alumni:

I have enjoyed serving you as your King and I hope you enjoyed the university for all of its great treasures. I am happy to see freshman mature and stay focused as we grow together as intellectuals.

This message is of reflection and great importance. We all know the activities and experiences here have tested our focus and prepared us for the world we think we know all . KSU's tremendous diversity has conditioned us for success. We will be great because we have learned initiative, participation, excellence, creativity, and passion in our majors. The trials that we and destiny create for ourselves are only bumps in the road of our bright futures. That potential light that lies ahead gives motivation for growth in the present. We know where we could be if we prepare a little longer, if we try a little harder, and stay a little bit more focused.

Kentucky State University needs you to do just that!

When you leave you will be representing not just yourself, but you will be representing how much preparation you have done and how well your school has prepared you. You represent those that came before you, those that are here with you, and those that will join you later. You will be representing all Thorobreds, because that is what you are. Just as hard as I represent my glorious university, I hope you will do the same because we have the same motivation; We love our school!

I guess it is my turn. Well, first, I would like to say thank you to my staff, you guys were great!! I have to give credit where credit is do, Tiff and Chrissy thank you from the bottom of my heart, when times got rough you two were always there, your encouragement, dedication, love, and friendship means the world to me. We did it all those long night, hard work, struggle, and doors that were shut we did it. Reece, all I can say is thank you, good luck we will miss you. Angel I know you just started but you came in and helps wherever you saw fit thank you.

To my KSU family I want to thank everyone that took there photo, that stuck by us, we understand the reason for any hesitation. Eight years without book is a long time, I hope my staff and I have produced a book that you can be proud of and appreciate, I know we are.

To all the seniors, thanks to all of you that came out and took your senior photos. I hope you all enjoy the book, it is full with meomarizes that will last a life time.

I would like to say thank you to Dr. Ufomata you are a great adviser, you always had our back and help us through a lot, to Dr. Buck you don't know how much you encouragement help. Dr. Sias a president is a leader and you are truly that. Thank you for all your help, support, and kind words, we needed that. To the Greeks, clubs, organizations, faculty and friends thank you because with out you their would be know book. Last year's yearbook staff I hope this book shows all of you your hard work and determination. Things used for this yearbook came from all of you alls hard work. I hope that this year staff showed the hard work you all did. Thank you for all the photos, discs, and work that you all did. Lalawna wow, you were right, thank you for being you and all your help.

Final thought, this was a new beginning and we did it, we are ready for next year, what about you?

THE THOROBRED CREED

PREAMBLE

Since its humble beginnings in 1886, as a school for the education of African-American teachers, Kentucky State University has created a rich heritage of producing great leaders. These leaders entered the halls of our University to learn and went out to serve our Commonwealth, our Nation and our World. It is with the recognition of our history and the belief that all members of this community have the ability to achieve eminence in every field of endeavor that we daily practice and uphold our ideals as stated here.

AS A TRUE THOROBRED . . .

I will practice
personal and academic integrity;
I will respect
the dignity, rights and property of all persons;
I will discourage bigotry, while striving to learn from differences in people, ideas and opinions;
In thought, word and deed, I will support excellence in the learning, growth and development of others;

Allegiance to these ideals requires each Thorobred to refrain from and discourage behaviors which threaten the freedom and respect every individual deserves.

Daily, I will practice responsibility, leadership, service to my community
And project the best image of myself and my campus.

THE ALMA MATER

Hail to our Alma Mater, dear is Her name,
And there shall be no other to surpass Her fame.

Hers is the hand that guides us day after day,
And She will stand beside us, when we go on our way.

May blessings be upon Her, shepherd of youth;
She holds the seat of honor, in the hall of truth.

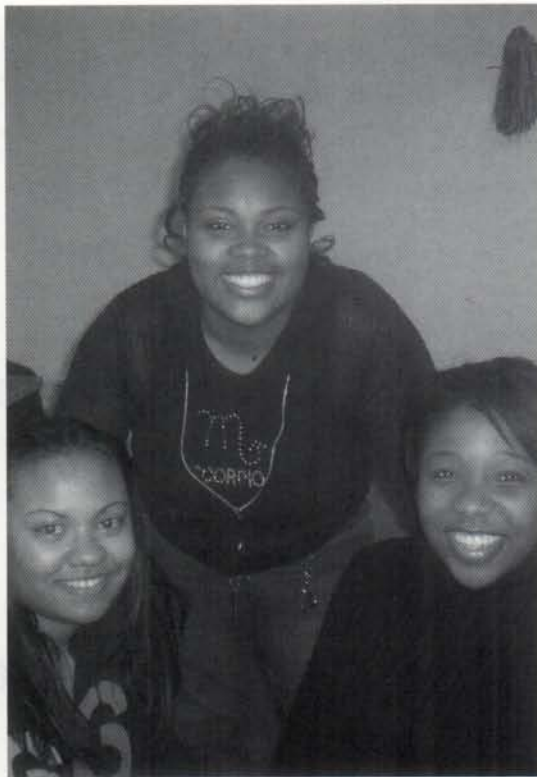

Mem'ries of Her shall never fade from our hearts,
And we will praise Her ever, for the love She imparts.

Sing ev'ry voice together, let echoes rise.

Hail to our Alma Mater, shout to the skies.

Holding the torch of wisdom, She leads the way
Clasping the hand of freedom, as She marches along.
